ST. MARGARET'S AFFAIR A HUGE SUCCESS

Card Party at Bellevue Attracts Nearly One Thousand—
Splendid Social Side

Close to a thousand—and yet the weather did not do its best at all. Score a signal success, then, for the Card Party, which was held at the Bellevue-Stratford on November 21, 1917, for the benefit of St. Margaret's of Narberth. Every detail responded perfectly to the carefully planned preparations and the clergy express themselves as being unable to adequately convey their appreciation of the generous and skillful support which was accorded by all concerned. Where Mr. Lanahan acquired his forte in conducting formidable occasions has not as yet been determined, for the seat of authority was delegated to him despite his assertions that he was a neophyte in such things and that the job should not be his. And yet no Bellevue affair was ever carried in a more masterful, effective or satisfactory fashion. 'Twas ever thus with true worth. Likewise his aides, Messrs. Hipkiss, Verna, Rudolph and a host of others, displayed cosmopolitan mettle to the ultimate degree. Mr. Rudolph's personally conducted bridge department being almost spectacular in its thoroughness, finish and delight, whilst the ladies who were active in the entertainment were untiring in their efforts to provide all who were present with a most pleasurable evening. Let it be no stinted commendation which is accorded the zeal and merit of the endeavors of the Misses Morris, Mrs. Hipkiss, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Verna, Mrs. Lanahan, Miss Quinn, Miss Diamond, Miss Collins and the rest of the valiant band.

The $100 Liberty Bond was secured by Miss A. T. McKenna, 2040 South Twenty-first street, Philadelphia, who held ticket No. 267, and immediately on the announcement, the young lady reflected the spirit of the occasion by donating half of the bond's value to the proceeds of the evening. This generous action was altogether unexpected and it's a fine tribute of praise which is due the donor. The card trophies were highly satisfactory and attractive and their distribution afforded pleasure and frolic galore.

St. Margaret's affairs should be looked for expectantly.

SUFFRAGE CARD PARTY

This Saturday afternoon our local suffrage branch will hold a party in the home of Mr. A. J. Loos, 417 Haverford avenue, at which bridge and 500 will be played. There will be practical prizes for each table. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. W. H. Pugh, 501 Haverford avenue, or at the Loos home the afternoon of the party.

On Friday, Nov. 30, 1917

there has been arranged a dance for the benefit of the "SOLDIERS AND SAILORS TOBACCO FUND"

This will give all our "Home Town" folks who like to dance an opportunity to enjoy a social evening and help a worthy cause.

Meyer's Orchestra has been engaged and they have assured us good dance music.

Subscription, $1.50, which can be sent to any of the following gentlemen:

ANNUAL MEETING, NARBERTH Y. M. C. A.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The president and directors will make a report of the work done during the year, and the financial condition of the Association will be outlined by the treasurer.

In view of the great importance that Y. M. C. A. work has attained all over the world, and the recognition of its value, as indicated by the fifty million dollar fund just raised by popular subscription to extend this work throughout the armies of all the allies and to the prison camps in all countries, a great local revival of interest is anticipated.

Efforts will be made during the coming year to greatly increase the membership, and a campaign will doubtless be inaugurated in the near future to put the association on a more secure financial foundation.

Every member is urged to attend the annual meeting, to hear the reports of work done, and to help plan for the future.

The nominating committee, consisting of Messrs. Loos, Odyke and Metzgar, have posted the following nominations on the bulletin board:

President—Harry S. Hopper.
Vice President—Charles E. Creamer.

Treasurer—David D. Stickney.
Recording Secretary—Robert L. Beatty.

Directors for three years—Harry S. Hopper, Charles E. Creamer, Robert L. Beatty, David D. Stickney, Edward S. Haws, William D. Smedley, John G. Walton.

Directors to fill vacancies among those whose terms expire in December, 1918—Frank A. Northelm, William N. Mills.

Director to fill vacancy among those whose terms expire in December, 1919—Fletcher W. Stites.

There are twenty-one directors in all, those whose terms do not expire this year being Messrs. Hoffman, T. C. Trotter, C. L. Smith, Butler, Bailey, Coggeshall, McCarter, Odyke, C. L. Metzgar, Leitch and Loos.

A new constitution and by-laws will also be presented for adoption. A copy of the proposed revision has been on file at the Y. M. C. A. for the past month, for examination by members.

COMING!

On December 14, the Narberth Boys' Club will give a minstrel show for the benefit of the Boys' Club, and expects to give part of the proceeds to the Soldiers' Tobacco Fund. Nearly every member will be in the show, and the people of Narberth will see some unknown talent, as well as old comedians.

Baron Bean Harris, our old friend, is one of the end men, and will sing "They Go Wild Over Me;" John Dickie will sing the popular ballad, "I Don't Want to Get Well;" Arthur Cooke will sing "Then I'll Come Back to You;" Rose Howenstein will sing "Some Sunday Morning."

The above people appeared in the successful School Circus. Robert Sperry, a new boy with a fine voice, will sing "Listen to the Knocking of the Knitting Club;" Louis Jenkins will sing "Homeward Bound;" Sidney Trotter will sing "Won't You Say A Prayer For the Boys Over There;" Phillips Witherow will sing "When Yankee Doodle Learns to Parlez vous Francais." The latest jokes will be on hand.

The show is under the supervision of Miss Augusta Witherow, who has had many successes in Narberth and nearby towns. Miss Witherow is supervisor of music at Conshohocken Heights.

GEORGE W. BRADEN OF NARBERTH

General Physical Director of the Italian Army

Mr. Braden, whose portrait we present in this issue, has been signally honored by his appointment as physical instructor of the Italian armies. This is most significant, as indicating that military authorities all over the world are recognizing the importance and necessity of giving their men opportunities for relaxation from the terrible strain to which they are subjected under modern warfare conditions. It is a high tribute to the work already accomplished among British, Canadian and American soldiers under Y. M. C. A. direction, and especially to the Y. M. C. A. of the United States, who have organized this work into a remarkably high state of efficiency. More particularly, it is recognition of the work done by Mr. Braden at the Central Y. M. C. A. of Philadelphia, where he was physical director for a number of years, and more recently at the Niagara Training Camp, and at Camp Meade. In former years Mr. Braden was physical instructor to ex-President Taft, and filled important positions on the Pacific coast, and elsewhere.

Mr. Braden represents the highest type of men in his field, combining the best characteristics of the Christian gentleman with the manly traits and fine physical qualifications needed for the important duties of his position.

In a brief talk to the children of the Presbyterian Sunday school last Sunday morning, Mr. Braden outlined the nature of the work among the soldiers, that has done so much for their physical and moral well-being. He is responsible for the present system, as exemplified at Camp Meade, where he has upwards of 32,000 soldiers under his direction. Recently, at that Camp, he was watching, with Brigadier General Nicholson, 7000 men, simultaneously engaged in thirty-two different games. General Nicholson paid a high tribute to the value of this work commenting that in that Camp, there had been only nine cases of illness due to "moral lapses," while in some of the foreign camps, the number of cases amounted to fifteen per cent. of the men. The value

THE UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Community Churches Unite in Annual Service in the Methodist Church—The Rev.
Charles A. McAlpine, Member of Baptist War Commission, to Preach—Music By Special Quartet

In response to President Wilson's Proclamation, the local churches will hold their annual Thanksgiving service in The Little Church on the Hill, Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

In the midst of these stirring days a keen sense of gratitude for the part we are to play in the world's affairs calls all men to worship and prayer. With prayers for our young men at the front, an unusually strong order of service, the Thanksgiving service this year will be a notable one.

The Rev. Charles A. McAlpine, a member of the War Commission of the Northern Baptist Church, will preach the sermon.

A special quartet, comprising Miss Prescott, soprano; Mrs. Staples, alto; Mr. Bub, tenor; Mr. Witherow, bass, will sing the following numbers: "To Thee, O Lord, Our Hearts We Raise," by William Dressler, and "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem," by J. H. Maunders. Mrs. Joseph Barclay will preside at the organ.

The community rejoices in the splendid spirit of co-operation existing between pastors and congregations. Such a spirit is worthy of the community and of its best support. The federated churches representing the Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians, cordially invite you to participate in the service.

RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT

On Saturday, December 1, there will be given a play and tableaux at Elm Hall. "Our Aunt From California" is a very amusing play. There will be singing and patriotic tableaux. Everybody come; 8 o'clock. Tickets, twenty cents and thirty-five cents.

EDITORIAL

The Frost King arrived ahead of time last Sunday morning, froze up a few pipes and covered the ponds with "ticklish" ice.

The diptheretic canker,
(For which we do not hanker).
Doth now with deadly rancor
Upon our tonsil anchor!

The "play element" is coming right to the front in Narberth. George W. Braden has been selected to show Italian soldiers how to relax and play, while "Bill" Durbin has gathered fresh laurels on the foot ball field. May they both live long and prosper!

Thanksgiving is again at hand, and although many households are saddened by the reflection that there will be one or more vacant chairs at the family reunion, they will rejoice that their sons have so nobly responded to the call of their country. Their thanks, though tinged with sadness will be none the less devout and sincere in the realization that their loved ones are doing their full duty.

A VICIOUS RUMOR

"Among the many absurd and vicious rumors put into circulation these days, probably through pro-German influences, is one that the United States proposes to confiscate money on deposit in banks. The absurdity of the statement is obvious on its face. These rumors are wholly without foundation and probably circulated for an evil purpose. The Government has no power to confiscate the money of depositors in banks."—From statement of Secretary McAdoo.

WORTH THE COST OF THE WAR

"I suppose not many fortunate by-products can come out of a war, but if the United States can learn something about saving out of this war it will be worth the cost of the war; I mean the literal cost of it in money and resources. I suppose we have several times over wasted what we are now about to spend. We have not known that there was any limit to our resources; we are now finding out that there may be if we are not careful."—From President Wilson's speech to the War-Savings Committee.

ASHES

Our borough officials have heard much about ASHES in years past. Last year they changed their minds about the plan of collection as frequently as the wagons got around to collect. And this year there seems to be just the same old haphazard lack of system and lack of regularity. Sometimes between collections the householder who has a plentiful supply of metal receptacles has to dig in his jeans and buy still more or else pile ashes on his cellar floor or place them in improper containers. At other times, he scarcely fills his metal receptacles when the ash collectors merrily tap on his cellar door.

Now, then, gentlemen of the new council about to be inducted into office, please be just commonsense business men and arrange schedules for given districts and see to it that they are workable schedules—and worked. If you will do this apparently simple thing, you will win the gratitude of every stoker of a furnace in Narberth.

Local Board for Division No. 1 for Montgomery county, which takes in Lower Merion and Cheltenham townships and Narberth borough, is closing up its first draft and is preparing for the new one, which is to be made under radically changed regulations.

The former draft, on account of the rush with which it had to be made, was an expensive one in this district. It is the desire of the board to cut down all expenses under succeeding drafts to a minimum.

To do this it needs the help of patriotic citizens in this section.

At its office in the Merion Title Building, Ardmore, the board has some office furniture, either loaned by neighbors or improvised.

It is desirable to avoid the expense of purchasing any other furniture, but four or five swivel chairs, seven or eight office chairs and a large table of the "directors'" table type are needed.

If you can lend any of these articles to the board, it will be grateful and will return them when the draft is over in good condition.

Under new regulations only a small paid clerical force is permitted. The board needs a man of ability, familiar with filing systems, and capable of learning its bookkeeping quickly, who can write a good hand, make neat, accurate figures and can operate a typewriter. A knowledge of stenography is desirable, but not absolutely necessary. Depending upon his qualifications pay ranges up to $80 per month.

A stenographer and general clerk is also needed. A woman is preferred for this position, which pays up to $60 per month.

Pay is on a monthly basis only and the period of employment, necessarily, will be indefinite. Persons who are merely seeking a position for the time being, however, cannot be considered.

Preference will be given, in filling the post of stenographer, to the wife or other relative of a drafted man, if a capable one presents herself.

Applications for these positions must be in writing and must state fully the experience and qualifications of the applicant.

No other clerical assistants can be employed, but the board has authority to accept the aid of volunteers without pay. Emergencies frequently arise in which they can render valuable service. Some patriotic residents of this section have already offered themselves for such emergency service, which can be performed at night, and similar offers from others will be gratefully accepted by this board.

Under the new regulations provision is made for the formation of legal advisory boards, composed of lawyers and laymen who will be convenient to all registrants in the district and who will assist them in answering the questions in the questionnaire. This is an important task and persons who can do this sort of work are earnestly requested to send their offers as soon as possible to this board. The advisors are not to be paid.

Physicians in Lower Merion and Cheltenham townships and in Narberth borough willing to render unpaid service as members of medical advisory boards are also requested to send in to this board their applications for prompt submission to the Governor.

Under the old draft regulations selected men were "tagged" when they were sent to camp. This was a distasteful proceeding. The new regulations suggest a white silk badge containing the stamp of the local board. It would be a pleasant thing if the women of this district would arrange to make such badges with a small American flag on a pin as the heading, or a flag button. They would be much better and more fitting than the improvised ribbon which would have to be used and would serve as a keepsake for the men themselves.

In this connection the board asks that local organizations form some sort of permanent committee, and finance it, so that every increment of drafted men to be sent to camp, large or small, shall have a send-off they will recall as a pleasant memory of their leave-taking. The absence of any sort of celebration; of music or of other formal effort on the part of the communities in this vicinity to say "good-bye" to Main Line boys since the first large increment was sent away in September is not particularly the fault of the communities themselves. More frequently it was due to the hurried manner in which draft increments had to be called. But it was regrettable, and on its own part this local board will do everything in its power, in succeeding drafts, to co-operate with any such committee by furnishing lists of men called and timely notice of the day of entrainment, so that proper farewells can be arranged.

As succeeding drafts have occurred this board has noticed an increasing feeling on the part of the young men who had been selected that they were "getting into the game," not as men forced in, but as men chosen for a fine and honorable service to their country. Such men should themselves be honored by the communities from which they are going.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The writer has observed with interest the communication last week to Our Town by the "Cub," in which he refers to a pleasing entertainment provided the "Main Line Fishing Club" last year by one of its members.

It is not a matter of obligation for the president of this organization to entertain its members by an evening supper, but rather that the privilege be relegated to the members or guests who having no visible means of reaching the happy fishing grounds except by the contribution of gas, hot air, lunch, or enthusiasm may show their appreciation of invitations extended in the past, and voluntarily give a party to which all the fishermen are welcome.

The precedent established by one member of the organization by entertaining the club should be followed in like manner by the other careless members.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Attendance at the Forum has improved considerably. Last Thursday evening about twenty-five of the local proletariat, students, thinkers and whatnots, managed to escape from their homes and wives to seek news on current topics, as well as consolation, both of which are so freely dispensed at Narberth's famous debating and lounging institution. The lower Chestnut Avenue Coterie from the swamp district were much in evidence handing out illuminating information on recent happenings in the world of events, but were especially interest-

Early Xmas-shopping has always been a good rule—and this year there are more reasons than ever for it! Obviously, prices won't go lower—goods won't be more plentiful—and it's wise you will be if you pay heed to these facts now! Avoid the disappointments which delay is bound to incur—get the good things while the getting's good! Howard now has a choice array of toilet articles—and cameras—and men's articles—and Christmas Cards—and cutlery—and cigars—and a good deal of the present stock can't be duplicated! ing in their exposition of the subject "How to get out at night." It seems that by a prearranged understanding they fabricate some story of an event to be held at Elm Hall, conveying the news to their wives that "if you don't believe me, ask Ted or Carl, etc." Of course, the game works, as a fellow's wife always thinks the other fellow wouldn't lie even though her husband might. This explains, kind reader, why you never see any of that crowd alone—they always travel in gangs.

Professor McClellan, of the Bunk School of Oratory, discoursed at length on the automobile laws of the State and made many astounding declarations. Being questioned as to the source of his knowledge, he admitted that it was revealed to him by a dream book which he always carries on his person.

Bill Cummer, who seems to find the chairs in the Forum more conducive to sleep than his own bed, woke up for a moment to tell his horrified listeners that the coal man has sent him a ton of coal with a bill marked C. O. D. He got the coal O. K., but the other man didn't get the C. O. D. Bill is usually so reliable and prompt when it comes to making promises in his paint business—promises I said—that he is over sensitive on many subjects.

When Buck Holt told how he had negotiated about 2000 miles in his Cadillac over a period of three days, lingering in several places in the meanwhile, some one displayed bad form by questioning the performance. Buck then suddenly recollected that he had an engagement and left the hall in a dreadful hurry.

Not long afterward it was suggested that a collection be taken for decorating the Forum. Whereupon everybody present found they had to go home.

The stingiest man in Narberth was scoring the hired man for his extravagance in wanting to carry a lantern in going to call on his best girl. "The idea!" he scoffed; "when I was courtin' I never carried no lantern; I went in the dark."

The hired man proceeded to fill the lantern.

"Yes," he said sadly, "and look what you got."

A Narberth girl was being shown through the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

"What is that thing?" she asked, pointing with her dainty parasol.

"That," said the guide, "is an engine boiler."

She was an up-to-date young lady and at once became interested. "And why do they boil engines?" she inquired again.

"To make the engine tender," politely replied the resourceful guide.

Carl Ludovici was out with his toy car last Sunday. Carl says he almost lost it from his porch the other day and now keeps it on the piano when not in use.

of these games in keeping up the physical and mental alertness of the men is incalculable, when it is remembered that in battle success depends often on a fraction of second's advantage. The men are trained to a "hair-trigger" degree of efficiency. He spoke of the mental strain, which often brings on insanity, unless relieved by play of some kind. Other nations have noted how British, Canadian and American soldiers immediately rush to take part in some kind of game, as soon as relieved from duty. Hence the call from Italy for the introduction of the Y. M. C. A. system in their armies.

Mr. Braden also touched on the importance of the character of the men engaged in the work of instructing and organizing the games of the soldiers. Soldiers are very imitative, and quickly determine the character of their leaders, and act accordingly. Hence the importance of securing men not only physically fit, but of robust moral fibre.

He closed by modestly stating that whatever honor had come to him in his selection was really due to his home, school and church training. His talk made a deep impression on all present, being one of the most inspiring to which they had ever listened.

The very best wishes of Narberth people go to Mr. Braden. That he will do his work well, and bring further honor to his native land and his home town goes without saying.

It is easy for a man to get rich quick if he meets a lot of others who want to.

10.30 A. M., Thursday—Union Thanksgiving service in the M. E. Church. Speaker, Dr. C. A. McAlpine, member of the War Commission of the Northern Baptists.

Church Notes

Sunday morning the church will observe communion. The last communion service was one of the largest in the history of the church. The exercises of the twenty-sixth anniversary of the Bible school last Thursday evening were very largely attended and were considered among the very best.
Dr. McAlpine, who recently moved to Narberth and who is a member of this church, has consented, upon the request of the pastor of this church, to preach the union Thanksgiving sermon. Dr. McAlpine is an able and forceful speaker. Let us give him a large hearing and a warm welcome to our community.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister

Special meetings are announced for the Thanksgiving season as follows:
Thursday—Union meeting in the Methodist Church at 10.30 A. M. Sermon by Rev. A. McAlpine.

Union Thanksgiving Service

The community churches will unite in holding the annual Thanksgiving service in this church at 10.30 Thursday morning. Speaker, the Rev. Charles A. McAlpine, a leader in the Baptist denomination. Music by a quartette composed of Miss Prescott, soprano; Mrs. Staples, contralto; Mr. Bub, tenor; Mr. Witherow, bass. Organist, Mrs. Joseph Barclay.

Ladies' Aid
Members of this organization meet every Wednesday afternoon in the lecture room to knit for the soldiers and sailors. Any woman desiring to help is given a cordial invitation to drop in and work.

Sunday School
Since the first of October the school has maintained the largest average attendance in its history. Ten new scholars were received during November.

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS

221 South Eighteenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

October 25, 1917.
NOTE—Please post in a conspicuous place in your headquarters and call to the attention of all departments. To all Branches and Auxiliaries: Millions of Surgical Dressings Wanted at Once

Major Grayson-Murphy, American Red Cross, Chief of Commission in France, cables the following:—

"Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent over with all possible speed. If this is not done immediately a serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable."

"The American women who compose the Red Cross should prepare with all the enthusiasm and speed possible the dressings which are going to mean life or death to our own men."

To visualize the great need of surgical dressings one has to reflect that only a few weeks ago two and one-half millions of surgical dressings went down in one ship, and that the cases are numerous where an entire box of dressings is used on one patient.

It is imperative that women of the Red Cross in Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter increase immediately this needed supply of surgical dressings that the front is calling for.

THE FIRESIDE

Please bear in mind that remittance—either coin or stamps—must accompany your classified advertisement copy, otherwise the advertisement will not be inserted.

Do not forget to attend the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening, December 3. Election of officers and directors, and revised constitution and by-laws to be voted upon.

Everyone interested in the work of the Red Cross will be glad to help by attending an entertainment to be given by the Junior Unit of Narberth at Elm Hall next Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

Rev. Daniel H. Martin, the very successful pastor of the Cynwyd Presbyterian Church, will deliver the message at the meeting for prayer and repentance next Friday evening in the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Frieda Schnabel, secretary of the Narberth School Board, has resigned the position she filled so acceptably in the choir of Narberth Presbyterian Church, to sing in the choir of Cynwyd Presbyterian Church.

The dance to be held this Friday evening the thirtieth at Elm Hall is an experiment to ascertain if the Narberth people wish to dance during the coming winter season and at the same time to support the "Smoke Fund."

L. C. Shahan has rented the garage on Essex avenue formerly occupied by the Ford Service Company, Lee's Garage, as he styles the business, shows evidence of growth, and is carefully managed personally by Mr. Shahan.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, December 3, at home of Mrs. Dale Wolf, 112 Chestnut avenue, Narberth, Pa. Mrs. Chas. E. Kramer will have charge of topic. All invited.

The Belgium soldiers have had smokes sent them since the beginning of the war and the fund now being raised is for our own boys—so come and enjoy the dance Friday evening and at the same time contribute to the American Smoke Fund.

Mrs. W. B. Anderson, so favorably known in Narberth, will speak at the women's meeting in the Presbyterian Church next Friday afternoon. It is expected that her friend, Mrs. McClure, for many years a missionary, will be present at this meeting also.

The young people of Narberth are most cordially invited to attend the C. E. meeting at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, December 2. This meeting will be in charge of Mr. Melchior's S. S. class, and promises something of interest to all who will be present.

The senior class of the high school met at the home of Ruth Haws last Friday evening. Those present were Sydney Bolich, Dorothy Durbin, Edith Humphreys, Esther Ricklin, Ruth Haws, Ross Hovenstein, Quincy Yowell, Kenneth Walton, Robert Sperry, Jack Haas.

The organ recitals of Mr. T. S. Berry in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evenings are attracting many lovers of good music. The attendance last Sunday evening was the largest of the evening meetings for many months. Mr. Berry begins his recitals promptly at 7.45 P. M.

Mr. W. T. Covert and family, of Hampden avenue, have removed to Shadyside, Pittsburgh. While Mr. Covert's many friends are glad to know of his promotion to an important position on the engineering staff of the Pennsylvania Railroad, he and his family will be greatly missed in Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Bartlett, who have taken up permanent residence in Boston, will return to Narberth Thanksgiving Day to be with their daughter, Mrs. W. R. Smith, Jr., corner Maple and Woodside avenues. Lieutenant Charles Bartlett, their son, will come up from Camp Meade to be present at the Thanksgiving dinner.

The editor endeavors to keep as much as he possibly can the roll of honor up to the moment, but to keep it correct in every particular, your assistance, not unjust comments, is needed. If some name should not appear thereon, that should be listed. Let us have the particulars at once. A postal will do. It is one of your duties to keep our town posted on just such matters.

Our Town is in receipt of a communication signed personally by Mrs. William G. McAdoo, reading as follows: Washington, November 10, 1917—On behalf of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee I want to extend to you our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the splendid co-operation you gave us in obtaining nationwide publicity during the Liberty Loan Campaign just closed. Chairman Woman's Liberty Loan Committee.

President Wilson told the National Service Commission of the Presbyterian Church in conference with him at the White House that the supreme mission of the church in these days is to strengthen its own spiritual forces. Following the suggestion of the Commission, our local Presbyterian Church will hold special meetings for prayer and intercession next Friday afternoon and evening and a special communion service next Sunday afternoon.

A SPECIAL CALL TO PRAYER

The Thanksgiving season of 1917, fixed by executive appointment will inevitably be marked by unprecedented solemnity. Services and observances that were customary in days of great national prosperity and world-wide peace would be most inappropriate now. This Thanksgiving season calls us to a special recognition of God's unchanging goodness and at the same time our need to purge our souls of selfishness and hatred and reliance in the power of might. In view of these tremendous realities the pastor and session of the Presbyterian Church call the people of this church to a season of prayer. In addition to the Union meeting on Thanksgiving Day, meetings will be held on Friday, November 30, in the afternoon for women only and in the evening a mass meeting to be addressed by Rev. Daniel H. Martin, of Cynwyd. On the following Sunday a special communion service will be held at 4 P. M.

XMAS BOXES OF THE SOLDIERS

Don't forget to bring your donations of jam jellies and sweets on December 4 to the Community Rooms of the Y. M. C. A. These will be sent to the Camp Meade boys for Christmas. Many are without relatives or friends, and we can cheer them this little bit. On November 20 the club will meet in the Community Rooms of the Y. M. C. A. at 3 P. M., at which time there will be a regular business meeting which will be dispatched as quickly as possible so that the remainder of the afternoon may be devoted to the study of Parliamentary Law, under the able guidance of Mrs. Etta Haley Osgood, Parliamentarian of the Maine Federations.

"Circulating Library"
A circulating library is to be established within the club for the use of its members. At the end of the year these books will be devoted to some public institution or to the soldiers, as the conditions at that time warrant.

A movement is also afoot to arrange a choral society within the club. All members are invited to participate and further particulars will be given later.

A dollar unjustly gained cannot be justly kept.

SERGEANT MERKLE KILLED IN FRANCE

A telegram received Monday by Mrs. Alice Sorber Merkle, 4177 Ridge avenue, Falls of Schuylkill, announced the death of her soldier husband, Sergeant George E. Merkle, in France.

The telegram was from the War Department at Washington. It stated that Sergeant Merkle, of the Signal Corps Aero Squadron, was reported as accidentally killed. No details were given.

Merkle, who was twenty-three years old, was the son of Waldron Merkle, lessee of the Belmont Driving Club, Narberth, and enlisted in the Signal Corps April 16. Two days later he married Miss Alice Sorber, daughter of the late William Sorber, a member of one of the oldest families in the Falls of Schuylkill. After four months' training in various aviation stations in this country, he was sent to France the latter part of August. During the seven months he wrote many letters to his young wife.

Merkle received his first training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. After having been at that training camp for several weeks, he was transferred to Fort Cotton, L. I. While at these two stations he made several flights as a passenger. He was studying aviation with a view of qualifying as a pilot. He enlisted as a private, but before leaving this country for Europe, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant, purely on the merit of his work. During his service at Fort Cotton he visited his parents and wife on a twenty-four hour furlough. That was on August 17. A week later he sailed with his squadron for France.

When his wife heard the news, she collapsed. Since he enlisted in the army she has been working in a department store. Last Friday she sent him a Christmas box. He was in Paris then. Merkle was a graduate of the Drexel Institute and was employed in the car record department of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

SCOUT NEWS

The weekly meeting of the Boy Scouts was held Friday evening, November 23, in the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was opened as usual and routine business transacted.

It was voted to accept the contract to deliver the Bell Telephone directories this quarter and Mr. Cole announced that Dan Beard, the National Scout Commissioner, would give a camp talk on some of his adventures at the residence of Mr. Isaac Sutton, Overbrook, on Saturday afternoon. Several of our Scouts hiked down the line to attend—and felt well repaid.

The troop voted to give $10 to the Y. M. C. A. Relief Fund. This money was earned by the members of the troop and was willingly subscribed for benefit of our soldiers and sailors at camps and the front.

Two of our members are almost ready for the degree of Star Scout. The other members of our troop have got to go some to catch up.

Scoutmaster Cole has decided to divide the troop into two divisions—seniors and juniors. Each division will meet separately and will have separate leaders as soon as they can be secured.

NEW DRAFT RULES

Expect to Enroll Four of Every Five Called

Copies of the new army draft regulations have come off the press for a final reading preparatory to mailing to the local exemption boards throughout the country. They will be in the hands of all boards next week.

Under the new plan the burden of supplying information which will result in his being placed in his proper classification under the Selective Service law rests squarely upon the registrant. All instructions now in the hands of the boards will be annulled upon the receipt of the new regulations, which are greatly reduced in extent and simplified in process.

The questionnaire process will eliminate from consideration for military service probably ninety-five per cent. of the men who would have been discharged or exempted under the old plan. Under the first call the average board was compelled to examine five men to obtain one for service. In some cases not more than one out of ten or twelve was sent to the camps.

It is expected that under the new scheme the average figures will be reversed and at most not more than one man in five called up will fail to pass his physical examination and be rejected.

The American Bar Association and the American Medical Association are now at work organizing the lawyers and doctors to aid registrants in their vicinity in filling out their questionnaires. With the aid of these associations it is hoped a high percentage of the questionnaires will come back in such form that the boards will have little more than a rubber stamp proceeding left to select the men to fill any call.

SCHOOL NOTES

Thanksgiving vacation, Wednesday, 10 A. M. until Monday, 8.40. Thank you, gentlemen of the School Board.

The next round table conference of parents, directors and faculty will be held on Wednesday, December 12, at 2.35 P. M. in the Elementary Building. This is being held before Christmas at the request of the many enthusiastic parents who attended the other meetings.

The third of the series of meetings was held last Thursday in the high school. This proved to be exceptionally interesting. Although the meeting formally closed at 3.30, there were more than twenty parents talking with teachers at 4.40.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy—so come to Elm Hall on Friday evening to the dance given for the "Smoke Fund."

As the Clock Ticks

Three hundred and fifty telephone calls a second!

That is the average volume in the Bell System day and night, and at certain hours it is more than doubled.

The operating force must keep the "tracks" clear, ready for every cross-town or transcontinental call. In these unprecedented times the importance of each connection is magnified, as is the necessity for steady performance on the part of the operators.

They are counting no effort too great, and they are also counting on the public to appreciate this and to accord them deserved consideration at all times.
